Daniel I will always remember how you were when you and your Mom came down to West Palm Beach. How much fun you had with all of us. I will remember all the good times when you came down to the house on the eastern shore with all of us. You will be greatly missed Daniel you were your Mothers world and her life. You were a very special person in my life also. I am so sorry I have missed so many years with you and your Mom. I will always love you Daniel please always watch out over your Mom. In my eyes I new a beautiful boy and you were always so kind to me and all that you knew.

Daniel we will always remember you as a sweet young man. Daniel you are in the presence of the Lord and we weep at your loss. God weeps with us and instead, we should refrain from judging the time has come to begin the healing process. We will always love you and your Mom. God be with you.
